

IN THE MICHIGAN COURT OF APPEALS

ORDER

Re: Mitchell Jones v Saxon Mortgage

Docket No. 267496

L.C. No. 04-422449-CH

Michael J. Talbot, Judge, acting under MCR 7.211(E)(2), orders:

The "motion for time to correct" is treated as a motion to extend time to file appellant's brief and it is GRANTED to the extent that appellant is afforded additional time to file a brief on appeal that conforms to the requirements of MCR 7.212(C). Appellant's motion indicates that appellant intended that his prior pleading, which is titled, "Affidavit and Motion of Plaintiff's Complaint Brief," be accepted as his brief on appeal. However, this pleading does not remotely conform to the requirements of MCR 7.212(C). Accordingly, the "Affidavit and Motion of Plaintiff's Complaint Brief" is STRICKEN on the Court's own motion. See MCR 7.212(I). The Court advises appellant to review the requirements of MCR 7.212(C)(1) through (9). Appellant's brief on appeal must substantially conform to these requirements.

Appellant's brief shall be considered untimely when it is filed. The Clerk of the Court shall place this case on the involuntary dismissal docket on April 4, 2006, if appellant's brief has not been filed.
